
Susan L. Bailey

Deputy Commander for Financial Management/ Comptroller Naval Supply Systems Command

Ms. Susan Bailey is currently the Deputy Commander for Financial Management-Comptroller for Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP). Ms. Bailey is responsible for operating and material budgets financing the mission essential products and services NAVSUP provides the operating fleets, expeditionary forces, and ashore customers. As such, she will ensure resources are effectively and efficiently used to accomplish NAVSUP's vital mission of delivering combat capability through logistics. Additionally, Ms. Bailey has responsibility for NAVSUP's Continuous Process Improvement Program, ASCENT.

Ms. Bailey was appointed to the Senior Executive Service (SES) in November 2005 and has 27 years of Federal Service.

Her most recent position was the Director of Navy Working Capital Fund Supply Management, Material Division for NAVSUP Headquarters. Her position responsibilities included leading the way for NAVSUP's budgeting, pricing, and accounting of $6 billion of material support procurement and repair funding, oversight of inventory valued at $17 billion, and cash management of $13 billion.

Previously, Ms. Bailey had assignments as a budget analyst for Ships Parts Control Center (now the Naval Inventory Control Point), a program manager for the Department of the Navy's Buy Our Spares Smartly Program, and an inventory management specialist for Ships Parts Control Center. She performed a rotational assignment as a budget analyst in the Business Office of FISC Yokosuka. Ms. Bailey began her NAVSUP career in Washington, D.C., as a senior pricing analyst.

Ms. Bailey attended Messiah College, Grantham, Pa., studying business administration. She is a graduate of the NAVSUP Corporate Management Development Program, a graduate of Federal Executive Institute, and was a member of the Defense Leadership and Management Program prior to appointment to the SES.

Ms. Bailey was awarded the Navy Civilian Meritorious Award in 1997 and was named Naval Supply Systems Command Executive of the Year in 2003.